2016 Educare Learning Network Meeting Mobile Event Application – A How to Guide

Accessing the App

Attendees can download the free mobile event application by searching “2016 Educare Learning Network Meeting” in the following app stores. Click the links below for detailed instructions.

- Apple App Store
- Google Play
- Blackberry World
- Windows Phone Store

Getting Started

Logging in: Please use the email address you registered with for the meeting to log in. Once you enter your email address, you will be asked to create an individual password for your account. This will protect your profile.

Building your profile: Your profile will be visible to all meeting attendees using the event app. Profile features include: personal bio, social media accounts, profile picture and more.

Using the App

Profile features: Located at the top right of your home screen, your profile allows you to access session documents, create meeting notes and access your inbox.

Accessing documents: When viewing sessions in your agenda, you can save documents to your library by adding the document to “Favorites.” Once added to your favorites, the document will appear in the document section of your profile.

Notes: When viewing your session (i.e. Family Support Learning Group), simply click the “Add Your Notes” selection and a box will appear to type your notes into. Any notes created during a session will be saved.

Inbox and instant messaging: Our event app allows each attendee to send personal messages to each other via an instant messenger built into the app. You can set up ad hoc meetings, chat about content or just catch up with your colleagues. Your messages will appear in your inbox located in your profile. You can message an attendee by simply clicking on the attendee’s profile and then selecting “send them a message.”

Navigating the App's Features

Home screen: The home screen and menu contain the following sections:

Agenda: The agenda option contains each session at the year's meeting. Note: you can view your individual schedule by navigating to your profile.

Attendees: This option contains the complete directory of attendees to this year's meeting. You can view attendee profiles and send messages here.

Connect with Educare: This page contains links to our social media, EducareConnect and related Educare websites.

Maps: This option provides you with a Google Map with the location of the Hyatt Regency Atlanta. To view the Hyatt Regency meeting space diagram, select "Maps" in the menu.

Alerts and Notifications: We will be sending meeting alerts and notifications throughout the week. Please look for updates and reminders!
